

CORNWALL
ARCHAEOLOGICAL SOCIETY

STILES PROJECT

Managed by the Area Reps of the Society

A stile is any construction in a barrier constraining the movement of animals but allowing the movement of humans

Postcard posted in St Ives 1905

Affix Picture

And identification of the digital photograph if also sent by email.

Directions for visit:

Identification of Stile

Map, map reference and/or GPS position

Short description of the location and position of the stile
(Please use two linked sheets if stile has two distinct sides separated by a hedge)

In use	Blocked	Redundant	Unsure
<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

Condition:	Good	Average	Poor
	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

Stile name (if known)

Stile type (national/local type if known)

Approximate Age (if known)

Reason for stile (footpath, church path etc)

Owner (if known)

Parish (if known)

Post Code (if known)

(Please write additional information on the reverse of this paper)

REPORTER

Name: _____ Address: _____

Telephone: _____ email _____

CAS Member: Yes No Member of similar Society _____

Area Rep

Name: _____ Area _____ Date received _____