

Cornish Ancient Sites Protection Network

Roesweyth Gwith Hen Leow Kernewek

Whitewaves, Boscaswell Village, Pendeen, Penzance TR19 7EP
Tel: 01736-787186 E-mail: secretary@cornishancientsites.com
Web site: www.cornishancientsites.com

Pathways to the Past 2012 – 6th year A weekend of walks & talks amongst the ancient sites of West Penwith

Saturday May 26th

10.00-12.30pm A walk through time

A guided walk with researcher Barry Reilly around the Sancreed area, visiting sites from the earliest settlers and throughout prehistory.

Meet at Sancreed Beacon lay-by [SW415 294]

2.00-4.30pm Sacred sites and settlements

A guided walk with David Giddings across the Penwith moors to Lanyon and West Lanyon Quoits, Bosiliack Barrow, and the recently-excavated Bosiliack settlement. A chance to visit some lesser-known sites in the company of a local expert archaeologist.

Meet in farmyard at Lanyon Farm [SW426 341]

8.00-10.00pm Hunter-gatherer communities in SW Britain

An illustrated talk by Paul Bonnington. At the Count House at Botallack.

Sunday May 27th

11.00-12.30pm Stories of Ancient Stones

Cheryl Traffon explores the legends and accounts of strange happenings at ancient sites. At the Count House at Botallack.

2.00-4.30pm The mysterious fogou and other sites

A guided walk with archaeologist Adrian Rodda from Pendeen to Lower Boscaswell and back, visiting fogous, a well, a beaker pit and other sites.

Meet at Pendeen Lighthouse (car park).

8.00-9.00pm Recent excavations & finds

To round off the weekend, Andy Jones from the Historic Environment Service will reveal what was found at recent excavations in West Penwith and elsewhere in Cornwall.

At the North Inn, Pendeen

Each individual event £3 but free to members of FOCAS (Friends of Cornwall's Ancient Sites). You can join FOCAS at the beginning of the individual event, or by telephoning 01736-793905, or e-mailing: focus@cornishancientsites.com